

THE DOTHAN EAGLE

VOLUME 1.

DOTHAN, ALABAMA, FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 2RD, 1906.

NUMBER 206

FLOY WHITE TO WED.

Former Dothan Girl to Leave For China, to Marry Man in Missionary Field.

Miss Floy White, daughter of Rev. I. A. White, at one time pastor of the First Baptist church at Dothan, is to leave the 15th of this month for China, where on arrival, she will enter foreign mission work, and also marry the man of her choice, who is already engaged in mission work there. The name of her future husband is not known.

Miss White has many friends in Dothan and she requests that they write her at Thomasville, Ala. in time for her to get the letters before she sails for the Orient.

HAY RIDE IN HONOR OF MISS BOOTH.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was a hay ride given last night by the young men of the junior society circle in honor of Miss Booth of Panama City, who is the charming guest of Miss Janie Farmer on West Main. There was one wagon load of the young people present, with Mrs. W. E. Whatley as chaperon.

After several rides around the city refreshments were served at the drug stores. Among those present were the following:

Misses Lucile Whiddon, Nettie Leslie, Janie Farmer, Sadie Deyler, Jewel Booth, Charley Crawford, and Lillian Parish. Messrs. Byrd Farmer, Jr., T. J. Whatley, Jr., Geo. Cotton, Jr., Clyde Strickland, Louie Loraine and Walter Bonham.

LET MERIT WIN.

Editor Eagle:

I have read and re-read the article of Hon. W. U. Acree in yesterday's Eagle addressed "To the Tax Payers of Houston County."

Mr. Acree is my friend and in the days that have tried our souls in the past I have stood by him and I am his friend still, but I desire on good authority to protest against the following sentence in his article "and but for the interference of those in authority in the executive department (with free use of big stick) we would have received the two-thirds majority."

I was in Cowarts Wednesday and in conversation with our senator Hon. B. A. Forrester he assured me that Gov. Comer and the executive department of our state government did not have anything to do with the matter, but that the Governor at all times refused to have anything to do with it. Senator Forrester was there during this fight and did all he could, and when the fight was just he did not accuse the Governor of taking a hand, but says that if Governor Comer had taken a hand in the matter, that he certainly could have secured more than thirty-five votes against the measure, and that on all the measures which the Governor pushed the yea vote ranged from sixty to seventy. Senator Forrester is still fighting for Houston county and he told me that unless Henry and Houston made some settlement of the matter, he would vote for a senator from Houston county to represent the 25th district in

Under the circumstances our crowd made a good fight, but since they lost it is not right to accuse Governor Comer of accomplishing our defeat. Henry had two representatives (one a preacher) who at all times stood with the prohibition forces of the House, and these two men had their friends and their claims on their fellow-members of the House.

If Houston wants to do so, she can win this fight on the merits of her case, and she does not have to misrepresent the Governor to do so, and she does not have to get this matter mixed up with the cause of prohibition or the adoption of the constitutional amendment to do so.

My friend Acree is a candidate for representative from Houston county in 1910, and he will need the friends of Governor Comer and the friends of prohibition to win the race; and it is not necessary to abuse the Governor in order for Houston county to win her fight, and if Houston county can not win on the merits and the equities of her case, then she ought to lose.

The election on the 29th day of November only settles one thing, and it is not the endorsement of any one man, but the endorsement of a great moral principle or the reverse. Men are nothing, principles are everything, and the principles for which prohibitionists are fighting will live on and burn brighter in the hearts of men long after Comer and Lawrence, and all the men now living have passed away and have been forgotten. So then let us settle all these questions calmly, deliberately and strictly on their merits without appealing to the passions and prejudices of the people and without resorting to abuse and misrepresentation.

Senator Forrester said "You can tell the people that Comer took no hand in the fight between Henry and Houston counties, and I was not elected as a Comer man, but I admired the christian spirit that controlled him."

EXPLORERS OF ARCTIC BELIEVE COOK'S STORY

Copenhagen, Sept. 2.—Dr. Fredrick A. Cook's credit stands so high with Danish Polar experts that the first message announcing his success in reaching the North Pole, meagre as it was, has been accepted as conclusive. Commadore Havggaard said today:

"I believe the message is true because Dr. Cook is most trustworthy and opposed to all exaggeration."

C. A. Neilsen, an official of the Greenland administration department, who is well acquainted with Dr. Cook and was associated with him in Greenland, said:

"When Dr. Cook says that he reached the North Pole, there can be no doubt about it. His scientific discoveries will prove that."

A committee under the presidency of the Minister of Commerce has been formed to arrange a fitting reception to the inter-polar explorer on his arrival at Copenhagen.

Dr. Maurice F. Eagan, the American Minister, will be aboard a special steamer that will be sent on by the Royal Geographical Society tomorrow to meet Dr. Cook, who is on his way here on the steamer Hans Egede. The Danish government tonight dispatched the torpedo boat Jutland from Aarhus to meet Dr. Cook. The Jutland will probably come across the Hans Egede off the Skaw. The commander will convey congratulations to the explorer in behalf of the government.

The special committee of the Royal Geographical Society will invite Dr. Cook to be the Society's guest during his stay in Copenhagen. Rooms have been reserved for him at the Hotel Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Baker returned to Colquit today.

Mrs. J. D. Logue went to Slocomb today.

Milton Reed of Atlanta is visiting in the city.

B. D. Crawford went to Jakin today on business.

The question is HAVE YOU A PIANO?

Do you want one? If so, what style and make?

You will admit at once the usefulness of an instrument in your home, then why not let us sell you an instrument on our easy terms? Any one can have a piano that way, and will have something to show for their money.

We only have the agency for fifteen different makes of pianos and eighty-three styles combined in the fifteen different makes. We guarantee to sell you an instrument as cheap as any house in America. All instruments backed by a guarantee.

HATS FOR WOMEN HIGHER THIS YEAR.

Milady's headgear, which husbands and fathers have from time immemorial considered sufficiently expensive, will this fall cost fully one-fourth more than heretofore.

Hats which last year would have cost $4 will be $5; those which 12 months ago could have been purchased for $8 will be $10; millinery which last year was sold at $20 will bring $25 this year; that which under former conditions was worth $40 will this fall bring $50. The same comparative ratio will apply in every instance.

And the muchly-exorted-from heads of families are hurling anathemas at the interstate commerce commission for this condition of affairs, for it is brought about chiefly by the rules which the commission has adopted for the shipment of millinery. These rules not only require a different and more expensive packing but also prescribe a different system of express charges which also add considerably to the cost of every shipment.

Neither the manufacturers, wholesalers or retailers will bear the brunt of this extra expense. They will add it to the selling price of their products and pass the burden on to the wearer, which simply means that milady's chancellor exchequer must come across with extra amounts of the long green when the milliner sends in her bills.

The Improved Order of Red Men was reorganized last night and a great many new members added to the list. This order is now organized and in good shape to stay so, as there is a large number of young men contemplating joining. They will meet again next Thursday night and a list of officers will be published.

ENTANGLED IN BALOON.

Syracuse, Ind., Sept. 2.—When William Simmons of Adrian, Mich. made a baloon ascension here late yesterday at the harvest jubilee, a boy named Quinter Neff became entangled in the ropes and was carried up 3,000 feet, descending with the baloon as the gas gradually escaped. He was unhurt. Simmons was compelled to cut loose when only a few hundred feet up, to save the boy, and came down with the parachute safely. The boy's father and mother were in the crowd and were prosecuted. Five thousand persons saw the accident and there was great excitement.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE between the "bargain counter" shears and scissors and a high grade article. The former may be cheap in price because of poor material and convict labor, but are never satisfactory in the "long run."

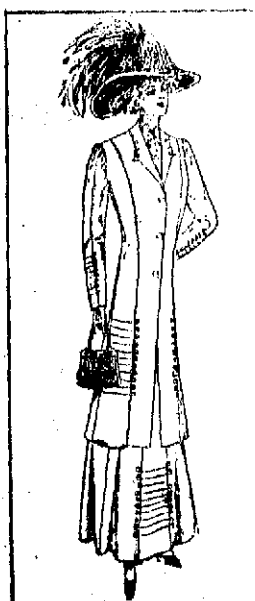

The latter is made from selected steel, properly tempered, forged and finished and every part inspected before it leaves the factory. Costs a little more to begin with, but is always a source of satisfaction to the user.

Clauss' make of shears and scissors are always reliable.

ATONES FOR CRIME.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 2.—After killing his mother, probably a week ago, George F. Simons, 21 years of age, shot himself dead to-night at the home of Violet Hartman to whom he had been paying attention. The body of the mother was found in the attic of her home this afternoon by the father, George F. Simons Sr. The door of the room was fastened with large screws and the crivices were sealed with paraffine. The body is in a badly decomposed condition. It is believed she was strangled. After the body was discovered the husband notified the police, who went to the home of the Hartmans to ascertain the whereabouts of the younger Simons. Upon seeing the officers, the young man shot himself in the head before anyone could interfere. It is believed that the young man quarreled with his mother about his paying attentions to a young girl.
